Media Kit 2016

The Art of Excellence

Art & Antiques is tailored to readers who are actively involved in the international art market. Our editorial policy places special emphasis on the interests of the serious art aficionado—a collector whose passion is acquiring and living with art, antiques and high-end collectibles. Our internationally recognized writers, many of whom are experts in their fields, speak with the voice of authority as they explore the significance and nuances of masterpieces that span the history of art and design—from ancient to contemporary. As we enter our fourth decade, we will continue to provide our readers with insight into connoisseurship, sophisticated analysis of the global art business and lively, jargon-free critical essays. In addition, Art & Antiques will publish exciting news stories about the art world, including the business of art, the museum world and recent discoveries in art history.

Our Subscribers

Our circulation strategy is not about how many people subscribe, it's about who we have as subscribers. To achieve this goal we have significantly refined our subscription and newsstand prices, and have developed propriety mailing lists that match our desired subscriber.

Over the past three years, Art & Antiques has been fine-tuning our circulation, and has been aggressively expanding its national and international newsstand distribution.
